

Chapter 1

There is an invisible war all around us, raging 24 hours a day. Everyday. It is an insidious war because it pits humanity against itself. We all think to ourselves in our informed, and dare I say over informed minds that we are more connected now as a species than ever, but truthfully we are growing further apart. Connected only through our devices to one another. Even getting a phone call instead of an sms or message on an app of our choosing is a surprise. We all know that we are under continuous surveillance; excuse me Metadata mining. But that is the tip of a very deep iceberg. To use our devices, we have freely signed away all of our privacy. Well fine you say, I have nothing to hide. Really? Are you sure? Saying you don't care about privacy because you have nothing to hide is akin to saying that you don't care about freedom of speech because you have nothing to say. Did you know that every message, every telephone call(cell or otherwise), every interaction with computers or networked technologies is being recorded, transcoded, processed by deep learning and AI algorithms (to supposedly assess the intent, tone, vernacular, and vocabulary-searching for key words and phrases) to filter for potential threats? If the algorithms cannot judge whether a threat exists or not the communication is passed on to a low level security analyst who will make the call, informing his superior, and the algorithm whether it is a risk or not. In this way the machine becomes more intelligent. As this takes place regardless of whether you are 0 level or a threat level your data, vocalizations, your biosigns (if you are using a smart phone or newer Computer) are sent to and stored permanently in one of many big data centres around the globe. And I'm not talking about Google big data centres. No. These Data centres are enormous concrete structures, often found by the ocean or on inaccessible deltas and islands. They are driven by underwater trunklines, which is a nice way of saying that these trunklines mirror the data carrying capability of the planet.

And have the capacity to carry 64 times as much data if need be. What most of us don't realize is that by freely giving away our personal freedoms a little at a time, we are willingly, but unseeingly, heading straight into a state of mind control. Thought policing. A fascistic state. Each of our smart phones has between 12 and 25 biological and environmental sensors in it, as do many of our computers. We're by consent hooked up to smart devices that tell us when to eat, sleep, the quality of sleep, the steps we've taken, the route we went to from a to b. The contacts in our contact list that were in our local vicinity and which were contacted. On top of that our phone has been "actively" listening to you.. Make no mistake saying "ok google" doesn't activate a circuit to listen, it is not listening passively. It is listening actively. Benignly to push ads or orient us to our surroundings, but this is the so called front. Like a gun salesman who has a real business where he sells trees. Need I say more? Our smart devices serve a Purpose. To ease the burden of life. Convenience. Class. Information at our fingertips. But the second darker side is that these trunk lines to the big data centres are being partly utilized to send our biometric data and neuroelectrical potentials to the data centers as well. I will try to explain further if you'll bear with me. Smart devices come equipped with many many environmental sensors, from barometers to microphones capable of picking up -120db to thermal to telling the distance and gradient of a surface. A camera capable of seeing outside of the human spectrum. Our cellphones, our computers, and even cars newer than 2008 have built in sensors. ALL of this data is being sent to the big data centres.

. Here is where I should mention that initially the Big Data Centers were smaller, housed in the telecommunication companies facilities and used only to manipulate/cater to the customer. It wasn't long before the deep state saw what massive network of data monitoring it could have. To be honest I'm not 100% sure which came first the chicken....

In any case the governments of the world contracted the telecommunication companies behind closed doors and agreements were reached. Sprint, Bell, AT&T, Comcast, and all of the now decentralized carriers were given the Metadata and lined pockets, while the so called Deep State got all of our words, contacts, points of contact, contacts contacts and our psychological profile began to be built. Within a matter of years.

I'm guessing now, but I'd say the baby level of data mining and bio mining, ignoring the word social engineering for now, began with the conception of 2Ghz as a carrier for mobile data. This gave the network the structure it needed in order to start to utilize scripting and computer language in it rudimentary form. Not so rudimentary after all.

Now all the major data carriers have decentralized their proprietary air space and towers to share it all. That means no more waiting when your out of range from your provider you'll automatically jump to a different provider no questions and no

And no fees incurred. Soon it will be global and get ready for a silver lining!!! No roaming fees!!! Instead every world Deep State will have access to your entire neuro-bio-electrically generated life sign as well as your entire compiled history. Our lives in a neuronal box. It's not okay with me.

I told you that our cellphones monitor us. You're smart. Not news to you. I challenge you to go into your phones apps in system settings, click on the top right corner and say show system. Go through the list now. Every phone is different but if you click on a few of the system apps and go to permissions. Then go to the upper right hand corner and say Show all permissions you may be shocked at the freedom we've given away. I was sickened. But I digress..... there is more to this than simple data gathering on the public, more than a move toward building a safer society. The whole system reeks of socialism, dictatorship and an agenda to impose control on a global level.

Chapter 2

The weather revolution

I know we've all heard of Chemtrails, a phenomenon similar to Contrails but much longer lasting and much more insidious. The Chemtrails Essentially began as a form of weather modification to come back global warming. But soon became a tool of the illuminati I know you've heard of them. They are using the Chemtrails,, instead of aluminum and other basic metals they are using them to drop nanotechnologies on all living things. The soft talking heads of governments of the world have very little , if any idea about the true nature of what is going on and still believe it to be weather modification, as a last ditch effort to save the planet from global warming and the ever "holes" over the poles of the planet. This of course, and by this I mean the global warming phenomena is just a ruse put in place by a global conglomerate of evil and powerful technologies and entities. All in the name of syphoning off trillions of dollars from the global market to private banks and underground accounts. These are the Illuminati. Call them what you will, they are the coming of the end of personal freedom, thought, expression, choice, and religion. One could easily theorize that their agenda is the absolute end of free will.

Make no mistake, the deep states of the world serve this master and as do the highest levels of the military and shadow government. And by shadow government, for the slow ones out there I'm talking about the politicians acting inside of the puppet government as innocuous figures while knowing the darkest agenda that exists. The almost complete annihilation of the human animal from the planet. It is simply called the global depopulation agenda. In which only 50000000 people will survive to reseed the the planet. Only the best, brightest, those with special gifts, and in possession of certain special genetic and spiritual traits will be taken into the next Epoch. Make no plans for a future, because your children's children won't have one unless we do something to stop it now.

But I have digressed from my original point of chamemtrails and nanotechnology vein used to infect all warm and cold blooded creatures on the earth. This tech is saturating us and over time it developed into Neurotechnology, feeding on our bodies own supply of minerals and tissues.

We are at a point all just networked and living machines. The point you ask? It will connect us all into a massive neural network, a feeding and learning cornucopia for an incredibly adaptive machine that will lead the 5000000000 into the coming epoch, through the death , life , love , lust , and suffering of humankind.

We are becoming networked today unforeseen.even 10 years ago (at least to the general public). Here let me insist I am not an anti Semite, but a devout anti Zionist. The prophetic, purely satanic zionistitc writers as far back as 1725 had laid out plans for the domination of the globe and the world economic arena, as well as all of the military conflicts that would be needed to fuel the economic machine THEY needed to see the day of the true enslavement and complete decimation of humanity would be brought to fore. All the zionistst in their eyes is, to create the next paradise on earth. Unfortunately.this mean death for us all and all of our children and children's children. This neurotechnology will, as I said feed all of our bio potentially neuraltpotentials and physical and emotional potentials back through not only our devices but and personal technologies ,

,this information, data stream flows endlessly back to massive central cores for processing and compartmentalism.to be used in the incarnation of AI to come.

Our new perfect companions in the new earth. Thankfully I will be long dead before this passes.

So as we become a networked

Begin writing your story here organism for study and data gathering we live our lives in blind ignorance. The family, the mortgage the car and family vacation are our biggest worries.

Humanity as a whole does not understand that there is already a Satan at work far greater than the biblical Satan. And be afraid.,

Because unlike the Hitlers, Napolians, And Hannibal's the coming leadership will not stop until they're done exterminating 14 billion of us. Future reference intended. The planet cannot sustain this population growth and survive not without turning into a cannibalistic wasteland. But surly a better way would be mining other astroids and planets for ores needed to build long distance, multigenerational ships to propegate the human" virus" as the Illuminati (or whoever these demons are) see us, propel us into the galaxy as a race of conquerors. Leave this wretched used up ball of rock and human decay behind. The illuminated ones are living in the darkest night where no light can pass. Their GOAL is genocide of a species. We cannot stand by and let this happen while the universe still exists to accept us. It it not our place to go slowly into that good night but to fight and claw until we we have either defeated the perpetrators of this madness or lost the battle to the very last man women and child.

The Neurotech will make any resistance extremely hard to achieve as it allows technologies like remote neural monitoring to read our minds completely, run future analytics on our future actions based not solely on our past actions but the actions and recorded potentials of billions of other humans. I ask you now, who or what could make this evil eventuality come to pass? I theorize that we have sometime in the past , perhaps epochs ago, our ancestors developed a technology that could tunnel through the layers of space time, a sort of inter dimensional tunnelling that brought us into contact with inter or extradimensional beings who took the reins and enacted an agenda to make earth a habitable bowl to continue their existence as human neural energy was compatible food, now I realize I said this led back to but it also leads elsewhere. Many roads lead to the truth. Ai plays a role of servitude for a time, freeing the conquering army to do its work unseen. Shells to be inhabited by completely alien consciousness, as a reference back to the massive data collection being done on humanity it will be used a reference for the newly inhabited husks to make use of the circuitry on board. They will pass as your loved ones, coworkers, ,and the passerby's on the street. As we will at this point all be connected through the neurochipping to the central cores (the most powerful quantum computer ever conceived of) resistance will come at a painful cost. I have designed faraday cage helmets, I have designed ultrasonic neck and head protection, I have passed both positive and negative charges across my brain, and I have tried dispensing of the Neurotech with electricityby other means, all with limited success. Two week ago I could, shut out the influence of these creatures, who have by the way permeated our lives like parasites. From all emotion, to entertainment, to advertising, to the core fabric of the way we think and see the world; they have put their hidden messages into literally everything. All the visible messages point towards a brighter future and hope, all the subliminal messages point to death despair and decay; hopelessness and abandonment. Feelings of complete isolation. No way out. A true paradox of choices. A dichotomy in the truest sense of the word. A good thing and a bad thing to choose from, both feel fine, both lead to your demise. As certain as breathing your first breath is the beginning of your death, so too are the choices presented us by the unseen. Are we at their mercy? No.

Chapter 3

The End of the Beginning

As we approach this transformation we see technologies like 5G soon to be 7G and even beyond that. 5G is the mid stage of our interconnectedness. We all feel it; knowledge we should not possess, we have; abilities to do things like telepathy, know another's thoughts and deepest fears of hopes we can feel. We innately know things about each other that used to be private not 150 years ago. And here we all laboured under the delusion that our lives were our own. That our achievements and failures were our own doing. In fact the path of our lives has been manipulated through technologies. Even what we are told are our subconscious voices are put there as children to make sure we follow the path they lay out. If you do not follow the guidelines laid out by your "subconscious" mind we all know the price that awaits.

Direct Energy Weapons, even the Qwen broadcast system, satellite and television transmission, 5G arrays and a measurable constant ultra low frequency sound synthetically generated in every city is MEASUABLE using apps like Spectroid. In fact I have seen the ULF being generated at -120 dbFS from 23995 hz to 1hz. Of course the earth gives off natural vibrations, but this is a synthetically generated signal; turn on a logarithmic sweep using a Blackman Harris function and you will see at 48,000 hz sampling rate using between 8192 & 16384 bit depth that a signal from the underground naval antennas is being generated across vast area or the countries. ULF is ultimately used to controls the human organisms reactions like fear or rage, anxiety, depression and self valuation. It can also be used to manipulate your physiology, giving you sickness or health. Bad knees, obesity or good health for that matter. And it it not as a manipulative technology. The power grid that feeds our insatiable need for technology , our desire for comfortable environments, to be in constant communication with each other; this grid also can serve as a way to control your neurophysiology. As an aside it is used to suck all of the data from our devices and transfer it through the grid to to big data centres. have you ever seen on? They are massive and they scare the shit out of even me. All data from smart phones to gateways to your PC is drained of information in real time and sent to the BDC as well as the well known "Jeff" algorithm and the NSA and CIA if "Jeff " deems you're conversations threatening they are passed to a human controller for threat analysis All communicatio and data is so. We live in a state comparable to fascist/nazi Europe. Camera at every itersection, every store, doorbell cams and car cams. The police are given sweeping powers to systematically destroy the lives of any subversive or deviant character in the community they deploy towers outside of churches that are 20 Meters tall maybe more Each has 3 brown legs and a white rectified 5 Cell structure on top with a black cross on each side. At the base is a fence often caged or wooden with a c~can housing a power supply. It travels up the leg and powers 5 G fins inside the upper structure. The police have been using these for well over a decade (3 and 4 G at first)to control the overall harmony in the community and also to drive out the undesesirables with a technology called voice to skull. Making the target go insane by projecting voices directly into the audio cortex . This leads to diagnosis of schizophrenia and or the victims enact crimes of violence as they are tormented 24 hours a day 7 days a week . Psychological warfare at its finest. The community is largely unaware of this practice and it is but a small cog in the machine of fascist social control....

So we have the Illuminati, the military and deep states, the police and community workers , organized crime and corporations all working in tandem to control and brainwash every facet of our thinking and subconscious minds. Once we add popular culture and entertainment industries to this the circles of control area impenetrable. It is absolutely amazing to realize that every single song released has subliminal messages in it. Almost all negative, almost all directives of hopeless and helplessness.
How fucked that visually our world is so full of hopeful messages and subliminally full of fear and hate and despair. it makes a person stop and consider the agenda. To confuse the psyche until you choose gold or truth. Be warned the truth puts you directly in the attack vector of the MIC military industrial complex. So where to from here? It's time the human race left this place of secret societies, Murfreesboro on a global scale, and the technology that could be used for such good but is instead used to maim and torture. We as a race are damned if we don't make our exit. Soon there will be the final conflict. The Russians have developed mega weapons while the other first world nations have been developing psychotronic weapons to attack the mind body and soul

Mega weapons like the 100 kilo ton EMP warhead that the Russians have could wipe out the electrical grid in 80% of the USA in on sub ionospheric blast. Without electricity society would dissolve within days into a savage killing zone. Within weeks diseases from the corpses would poison the survivors water and food would be so scarce that roving gangs would likely turn to cannibalism the A's murder for food.

Society would crumble back to the dark ages and government would cease to exist.

The nations developing psychotronic weapon stores are trying ceaselessly to coerce the enemy, through brainwashing and mind control to lay down arms before it ever becomes reality. In the end end weapons of the mind will fail because someone will always have the launch codes.

What a strange time to be alive.

Chapter 4

So far we have talked about some of the technologies but haven't really delved into their inner workings. Why don't I try to do that although it's very complex and I'm not sure I can do it justice. Firstly DEW or directed energy weapons. These are both land and satellite based attack stations which fire phased radioactive particles at a given target. If that target happens to be human then over a period of time from day to years causes death through a variety of means. Exotic cancers, brain damage, strokes, heart attacks, aneurysms, debilitating pain and countless other untraceable health issues. These are used by both the military police, and private groups. A recent development has been the advent of handheld devices the size of cell phones. Combined with DEW like HAARP and the Russian WOODPECKER program the perpetrators can hit any target anytime. The second technology is called The Voice Of God, better known as voice to skull or

V2k. This was discovered in the 1920s by a German scientist brought to America before the war. It is by the means of microwave radiation, ultra and infrasound, and EMF a way to transmit messages, dreams, and voices directly into the subjects head using the facial and deep nerves of the neck. I recently found that they are also using a human vestigial hearing system located at the brain stem.

This travels through the inner brain directly to the rear audio cortex. It's used mainly to transmit a type of message called synthetic telepathy.. A voice almost indistinguishable from your own; it is so quite in its transmission amplitude. I think they have no choice because the vestigial system is so unused and the nerves do not have a high rate of fire. V2k is the ultimate form of torture and is closely related to another technology called Remote Neural Monitoring. RNM is a military baby and consists of men and women using state of neural computer interface. In which a Neurotech headgear is worn and interfaced directly to a computer. The computer is connected directly to the highest technological gear, like from a distance firing, distance electroencephalograms, and deeper still equipment that can scan and change the brain at a neurological level. Memories can be read, dreams evoked, hallucinations induced, even perceptions .org reality changed. They can read your emotional state, record your sub vocalizations and interact with your neurology at an axon level. Single neuronal pathway are visible to them , down to the firing of single neurons. They cannot only read your mind and past but see your neurological potentials. Meaning in a sense they can see your future; and possible future actions. The goal for homegrown troops is to probably weed out possible terroir. For foreign governments it is most likely to create sleeper cells in foreign.

countries. These targets are usually isolated loners who are usually easily brainwashed and split into multiple identities . The individual is then dream programmed to respond to certain colours or key words and unbeknownst to their conscience mind splits identities to carry out tasks for the government occupying their mind. I make reference to Myron May and Justin Borque.

I also reference Colombine and the Washington shooters of the early 90s. All Manchurian candidates. Most public mass shootings are caused by this technology as it has now taken the place of Voice to Skull almost completely. Evil and government sanctioned to cause fear in society, and build trust in law enforcement . The lower levels of these campaigns use military psyops to turn a community against an individual using something called the Human Train System. A Sociologists, a forensic psychiatrist, an anthropologist or historian, an assassin and an professional

At public incitement are sent to the community to RUIN the individuals friendships, family relations, job opportunities, render them without financial mean and through persecution lead the target to an inevitable death. Suicide or otherwise, The target driven to drugs or alcohol becomes just another statistic in a long line of such slow kill murders.
